Great Introduction to Economics

By Austin White

"An Applied Approach to Macroeconomics" is the first textbook I've ever happily re-read several times. Unlike the authors of the typical dry and boring college books on the subject, Chambless hooks the reader's interest with a witty and funny writing style and uses real world examples. The book also offers a great introduction to libertarian philosophy and its origins.

Whether you are taking his class or not, I highly recommend checking out this book and the accompanying lectures on his website [...]
