Learning to Learn, awaiting our Will

By Maria Vittoria Serpini

This book focuses on the Will as the faculty(which is different than a skill!) that helps us in transforming our thoughts into 'real deeds'. It does this not in a veiled, 'smoky' way, but showing every step that can lead to this purpose. The 7 steps that are to be followed belong to the soul realm and are the counterpart of the 7 step founded on the body realm: this is easy to be understood and bring us easily from one realm to the other. Reading this book may be of help for everyone who want to obtain the best results from his/her learning in the everyday life. For a teacher of adults (whichever is the kind of his/her teaching), then, it provides a series of passages he/she can use in his/her daily work in order to help people learning and also to become their own master, which is the main result a teacher can reach!
