[Children's Fiction (Ages 10-12)]

[Read by Fred Berman]

The latest novel from Lincoln Peirce is a laugh-out-loud must-read starring the one and only cartooning genius, king of detention, and Cheez Doodle connoisseur, Nate Wright.

Principal Nichols wants Nate to be buddies with dorky new kid Breckenridge Puffington III and show him around the school. That's no easy task when Breckenridge is a total fun-sponge and his greatest passion is drawing plants. There's also something really familiar about this guy ... What in the world could it be? The shocking answer is sure to blow your pants off!

a Review for this book

By Lennard Boholst

Another great book by Lincoln Peirce. It's a great book telling a story of how P.S. 38 turns 100 years old and how they celebrate the centennial

A great book overall

By hamilton warren

I really liked how this book captured friendship in a nutshell. Nate expects someone to be bad, but remembers that while Gina teases him for liking comics, he is judging Breckenridge for liking plants. I also think the twist ending is amazing, where Nate puts all his trust in Breckenridge and they win the scavenger hunt. But I'm giving this only four stars because the plot is similar every book-beat Randy and Gina, win something. But this books is great- read at any age!!
