IT'S ALL IN THE FALL: LONG BAY GAOL, A HARD PLACE FOR HARD MEN BY PETER EGGE PDF

It has taken thirty years for me to be able to tell my story of the corruption, injustice and hardship my family and I were forced to endure during the later years and well beyond my position of Senior Assistant Superintendent (SAS), (Commissioned Officer), with the New South Wales Department of Corrective Services.

I refuse to say I was a victim, although you may choose to use the term. I prefer and believe that as we travel through our lives we all have many ups and downs and it is how you deal with them and what we learn from them that make our journey in life meaningful. My mother in-law had an appropriate quote, "Happiness is not the destination but the travelling!" "Bobby McCarthy 1910 -1994".

I became a Prison Officer in 1971 and rose through the ranks to my substantive rank of Senior Assistant Superintendent, through hard work and study. I had always been a loyal, honest and a forthright officer, I was clean in uniform, in other words I was unbending and unyielding in my pursuit against graft and corruption and carried out my duties with the full proficiency they deserved.

I could not write a book purely on my demise and the pain and suffering that overcame my family, extended family and me. Being a Prison Officer was my life and I loved every minute of it. The daily challenges, the camaraderie of my fellow Officers I have worked with, and alongside some of the hardest men in the country on both sides of the fence.

My book will take you on my journey, briefly looking at my pre Prison Officer life, through to my recruitment, training and the day to day events as I gained experience and worked my way through the ranks, arrest, court appearances, my imprisonment and my long fight for justice.

This is a book like no other. It deals with lots of stories that have never been told and some that have, although never from my perspective. Some are funny, some are horrific and some are very sad, and on some occasions I allow you to enter my mindset and tell you what I was thinking at the time of particular events and incidents as they unfolded.

This book is based on fact. I have kept very accurate records and court transcripts. I was personally involved with every story or I was on the peripheral edge, either way I was directly involved and have firsthand knowledge of every occurrence I have written about.

My aim is to give you an in-depth view of the New South Wales prison system in the 1970s and 80s, and the reality of the day to day running of the prison system in that era. The prison system is a lot different today and not necessarily for the better. Together we will learn "It's all in the Fall"

A great book.

By Lester Freeman

A hard gritty book with some great stories of life as a prison warder, surprisingly funny in places, surprisingly moving in others. I can highly recommend this book, I thoroughly enjoyed reading it.

Not A Bad Read

By MickM

I enjoyed this book because it gives an insight of what goes on behind the walls of a prison from the officers' and prisoners' point of view.

I would have marked this book higher because this version contained some shocking spelling and grammatical errors. I am not sure if it was the author's fault but it detracted from his efforts.

NSW prison corruption.

By Aussie Bob

Proofing needed on this transcript, while reading, half paragraphs missing. Sickening to think that the biggest criminals in prison get to go home every night.
