I loved working on this project with such talented indie authors as Andrea Johnson Beck, Stacy Claflin, CM Niles, and Dede Nesbitt.

Although I have a story included in the anthology, I got to sit in the part of reader while I enjoyed the four other stories. I love that each are short enough to read while waiting in line or for an appointment yet the level of detail in the story and character development give the same satisfaction as reading a longer work. I highly recommend this as a great way to experience new-to-you authors.

Imagery at its finest!

By Amy Rachiele, Author

Shutter Step takes me back to a time when a short story from Roald Dahl or Shirley Jackson was just what I needed to transport me to another time and place. This collaboration of authors offers multitudes of fantastic imagery. In short stories, every single word needs to count to pull the reader in.

"The blond swirls ruined as they stuck to my eyes and the cut across my cheek, cemented to my skin with blood." And I Exhale, by Stephanie Pitcher Fishman.

"Marguerite, only rags, some stained a deep umber like the crust of a pie long since forgotten in a hot oven, stared back." Shaded, Dede Nesbitt.

I highly recommend this anthology of shorts. The stories are refreshing and absorbing giving the reader just enough.
