"This book deals with the theoretical background of KP astrology. Good book for self-learners. I liked it."

"It's a book on case studies. In the book different types of astrological problems are analyzed. The authors are very clear about which rules they are following and how those rules can guide us towards the conclusion in a step by step manner. Amazing book. Looking forward to have more books in this series."

ZODIAC HOUSES (KP ASTROLOGY LEARNING SERIES BOOK 2) BY BIBHASH CHOUDHARY, SHIKHA CHOUDHARY PDF

The ecliptic is divided into twelve equal parts of thirty degree termed as the twelve signs of the zodiac.

The signs of the zodiac are quite independent of the place on the surface of the earth and results from dividing the twelve ecliptics into equal parts.

They should not be confused with the twelve houses of the horoscope, which are peculiar to each place and which result from dividing the celestial equator into twelve equal parts.

Therefore, by summing up the above, it may be concluded that the natural Zodiac of 360 degree is comprised of Twelve Houses referred as 'natural Zodiac Houses' which are of 30 degree each.

In this book, an attempt is made to explain and describe the following:

?What each houses have in store for an native

?What would be the experienced by the native when the lord of the houses are positioned in any of the zodiac houses.

Let us start with the First House/Bhava.
